Our School's Weekly Memory Verse for Week 21:

"Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails."

1 Corinthians 13:4-8

A Word from the Principal

Greetings! It has been a very busy week here at the Academy. We had a visit from the Classical Latin School Association in preparation for our Accreditation renewal in the Fall. We can't believe it has been five years! They were very impressed with our campus, all the teachers and students. We are providing our students with a great foundation at the Academy. I was very proud of everyone for their hard work and commitment to classical Christian education and our mission to train up virtuous scholars!

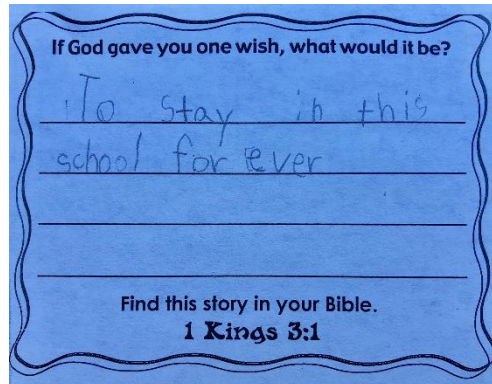

Non Nobis Domine,
Wallis W. Brooks, Principal

THIS WEEK AROUND ST. JOHN'S ACADEMY

Made out of shoe boxes, the upper students constructed replicas of the Roman Senate House, the Curia Julia, built in 44 BC.

The Curia Julia still stands in Rome today.

Students also practiced senator orations which incorporated their rich knowledge of roman history. Students attempted to convince the other senators (classmates) of their view points on a roman topic.
